The New York Tribune
Has gained over 50,000 new subscribers since the first of August, and is still rapidly increasing.

It has been apparent for some little time past that the President was resolved to treat Congress as an illegal and usurping body; and to commence on the Act of the late session equalizing bounties to Union soldiers and their families. The result was a manifestation of public opinion before which the President and his constitutional advisers have quailed. Instructions have been given to have the paymaster commence as soon as the requisite preliminaries can be finished. Now, we doubt that the preliminaries may be hurried up so as to begin the payment in good earnest before the October elections. Unless this shall be done, different orders may be given afterwards. However, that may turn, the President, notwithstanding his recent declarations to the contrary, has again been forced to acknowledge the legitimacy of Congress. We suspect he will recede from that, too, in less than six months.

Mr. Harvey, Minister to Spain, who conceived he was in the line of his duty, writing letters to Secretary Seward abusive of Congress, is surprised and indignant at the retort of Congress in stopping his salary. He seems not to have understood that mere holding office owe at least a decent respect to all departments of the government. The stoppage of supplies has doubtless enlightened him on that head.

The President has a policy. So has Gen. Grant. He recently defined it in these words: "To ask any soldier to vote for such a man as Hiester Clymer (of, at one time known disloyalty) against another who has served for four years in the Union army, with credit to himself, and benefit to his country, "is a gross insult." That is a policy which it will do "to tie to."

We would respectfully tender to our friends of the Press now in our city for the purpose of reporting the proceedings of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, the free use of our editorial rooms during their sojourn in the city. We will endeavor to afford writing accommodations for all who may choose to avail themselves of our invitation.

The Republican prospect in Illinois for a great victory is said to be most excellent. The Chicago Journal says that good judges predict a majority of forty thousand, the election of eleven, and possibly twelve, of the fourteen Republican candidates for Congress, and an overwhelming majority in both houses of the Legislature.

The telegraphic reports from Washington, published in Saturday's Chronicle, to the effect that Pennsylvania is safe for Clymer, were manufactured in that city by office-seekers, who are haunting the White House. They constitute the main argument for wholesale removals, but

The President removed Mr. A. M. Clapp, editor of the Buffalo Express, from the Postmastership of that city. The Republicans of that Congressional district have made him their candidate for Congress, and he will be elected by an immense majority.

The Philadelphia Ledger says Mr. Bigelow, our Minister to France, is to be removed because he does not endorse "my policy," and that Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Times, is laboring hard to secure the position.

Col. Alexander J. Frick, of Montour county, has been nominated as the Union Republican candidate for Senator in the Fifteenth district, represented during the last term by the Hon. David Montgomery.

The telegraphic advices from Canada are to the effect that the government has given magistrates authority to disarm all persons reasonably suspected of disloyal intentions.

In the Senate district of this State, composed of Wayne, Pike, Monroe and Carbon counties, the Democrats have nominated Charleton Burnett, of Monroe, for Senator.

No doubt whatever exists but the democrats are colonizing men from abroad into the Westmoreland district, to vote against Gen. Geary and Mr. Covode.

The indications are that the Unionists of Maryland will elect three out of the five Congressmen in that State, which will be a gain of one.

Gen. Sheridan has made a formal report to the War Department that Louisiana and Texas are in a condition of anarchy.

The Republicans of Clearfield county have nominated James M. M'Kay for Assembly.

Gov. Hahn, of Louisiana, is stumping Iowa for the Union cause.

Mr. Seward was able on Saturday to call on the President.

Dr. Horatio Stone, the eminent sculptor, whose statues of Hancock and Benton are among the celebrated works of national art, has left Washington en route for Rome, where he is to execute a statue of Alexander Hamilton for the capitol, Congress having given him accommodation and appropriated ten thousand dollars to that work.

The Additional Issue of National Bank Circulation—Funds in the Treasury.

NEW YORK, September 22.—Specials from Washington contain the following: All the applications now on file in the Paymaster General's office and at the office of the Second Auditor of the Treasury for the additional amount authorized by the act of July 28, 1866, are to be returned to the applicants, containing the endorsement "Returned for amendment, in conformity with the regulations issued by War Department of September 16th, 1866." Applications of heirs, &c., for all claims of deceased soldiers, and application for bounties of every class accruing to colored soldiers, according to law, must be made direct to the Second Auditor of the Treasury, and not to the Paymaster General.

National Bank circulation to the amount of $500,000 was issued during the week by the Acting Comptroller of the Currency. The total circulation of National Banks is now $272,-316,780, and the amount of French authorities Eugenie instructions from France, object. Some skirmishing had occurred just outside the walls of Vera Cruz. At night the Liberals sweep quite close to the city. The Imperialists had met with a disastrous defeat in Michoacan. Report said the Imperial General had to abandon everything.

Republican Congressional Nomination to the First District—Death of a Philadelphia Lawyer.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—E. C. Knight has been nominated by the Republicans for Congress in the First District. John F. Fenniston, a merchant long engaged in the West India trade, died suddenly last night of cholera at his residence near this city.

Terrible Railroad Accident.

Louisville Cholera Cases.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 22.—There were seven deaths from cholera reported yesterday and two to-day. The number of cases are not reported.

SUNSTON.—In our item detailing the drowning of a lad in the Ohio river, we said the boat was manned by two men paddling in a skiff near by, who refused to render any aid or attempt to rescue the boy from a watery grave. Nothing can be further from the truth, and learn that the gentlemen did all they could, by power to assist the drowning boy, but to no purpose, and could have saved the life of her son had he been within reach. In this connection, we deem it but simple justice due the gentleman upon whom we so severely rebuked.

Messrs. Ashton Bell stock has been removed to the Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, Pa., and is now offered at the following prices: Mr. Bell, President—T. A. Mahaffey, Vice President—James Boyd, Secretary—Wm. Clark, Treasurer—J. O. Harper.

A Bloody Tragedy in New York—Murder and Suicide.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22—A dreadful tragedy occurred this morning in the 14th Ward, which resulted in the death of two Italians named Peter Funani and Alexander Urent. Funani was a maker of plaster of Paris casts in the basement of No. 145 Elm street. Urent was a journeyman moniker and is said to have been an excellent artist. Funani was about getting out a plaster bust of Madame Ristori which he was anxious to have finished immediately in order to take advantage of the present excitement. This morning Urent, who was at work on the model, did not reach the shop until eight o'clock. Funani who was there before inquired of Urent what he meant by not coming there until that hour. Urent coolly answered that he would come to work when he pleased. This led to an angry retort from the employer, and the two men were soon involved in a quarrel. Funani, who was a large and powerful man, advanced towards Urent, who was much smaller, when the latter drew a pistol from his pocket and fired. The ball took effect in the left breast of Funani, who fell to the floor and some friends removed him to his residence, No. 46 Elm street. Urent, as soon as he had fired the shot, fled to the street. He was pursued and caught when he shot himself and instantly expired. Funani's wound is considered mortal.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Forney's Press publishes the following special:

NEW ORLEANS, September 22.—There is no truth whatever in the statement telegraphed to the New York Herald that the Eighty-second Regiment of colored troops, stationed here, were mutinied, at any time, to create a riot in this city. No troops could possibly have behaved better than they have done since their arrival here, and any report to the contrary has been manufactured for merely political purposes. General Sheridan is very much annoyed that such malicious reports should be sent North, and intimated to-day that correspondents who in future send such lying messages, shall be compelled to leave New Orleans.

Constitutional Amendment Passed by the House of Representatives in Oregon—Other Improvements at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 22.—A Salem, Oregon, dispatch of last night says: The House passed the Constitutional Amendment. Ayes 35, Noes 24.

Ayers Hill contested election case was decided in favor of the trio setting union members. The steamer Nevada, from Columbia River, brings $65,000 in treasure.

The Board of Harbor Commissioners has adopted a plan to construct sea walls for the protection of a portion of the San Francisco water front, at a cost of nearly two and a half millions of dollars.

From Mexico—The French Not to Leave.

NEW YORK, September 22.—The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondence, dated September 11th, states that there are no indications of the withdrawal of the French troops. The Eighty-third French regiment was expected to leave for France on the 10th, but only one battalion came down. It is true that Marshal Bazaine has received instructions from France, object. Some skirmishing had occurred just outside the walls of Vera Cruz. At night the Liberals sweep quite close to the city. The Imperialists had met with a disastrous defeat in Michoacan. Report said the Imperial General had to abandon everything.

Financial Report.

The amount of fractional currency printed during the week was $421,000. The shipments made during the same period amounted to $458,077. The redemption of the Treasury cannot be installed fractional currency to the amount of $418,300.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

From present indications the great Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention that convenes here to-morrow, promises to be beyond all peradventure, the largest and most important convention that has assembled on this continent. It will be composed of all political hacks, but men, noble minded men, who in the hour of their country's need, bared their breast to the enemy, and met the shock of battle and the dire calamities of war, in defence of their country and principles. In the profound tranquility of a peace they have established, they re-assemble to re-affirm their fealty to those principles, and their devotion to the best interests of their country. Who has a better right to dictate the policy of the Government than the savers of it? No one. Our citizens fully appreciate this fact, and in their preparations to receive the brave men who will compose the Convention, they have fully sustained the well-known character for generous hospitality.

In addition to the accommodations furnished at the several hotels, steamboats have been chartered which will afford ample and agreeable quarters for some or six hundred strangers at least. Many of our people have announced their willingness to throw open their private dwellings that those who cannot be accommodated elsewhere may be suitably entertained while the Convention is in session. Among the notabilities who have already arrived and those who are expected to-day are the following persons: Ben. F. Butler, Massachusetts; General N. P. Banks, Massachusetts; Major General Collis, Philadelphia; Major General Fremont, Missouri; Brigadier General Sargent, Boston; Brigadier General Stewart, New Jersey; Brigadier General Straight, Indiana (of Libby prison notoriety); Generals Cochrane, Foster and Barlow, with a delegation of about one hundred, from New York; Generals McAllister and Jordan, with Colonels Ward, Jonhans and Cooper; Colonel Hall; Colonel Cramer, Alabama; Colonel Charles E. Moss, of Missouri; Governor Fairchild, of Wisconsin; General Thomas, Kentucky, of Indiana, with a large delegation; Major Ben Perly Poore, of Boston, Mass.; Colonel S. G Gibbon, Vicksburg, Miss.; Captain James M. Hamlin, Mississippi; General W. Fosdick, Texas, and Colonel Thomas H. Durham, Boston, Mass.

The Indiana delegation, which arrived yesterday, put up at the Monongahela House. Many of the military celebrities that arrived yesterday and last night can also be found at this house. Major Ben. Fearly Poore, than whom there is no man better known in the United States, honors the Union Depot Hotel with his presence, while the gentlemen from Mississippi, mentioned above, can be found at the Merchants Hotel.

The St. Charles has been engaged for the accommodation of several western delegations, which will doubtless reach the city to-day.

There are a great many strangers here from all parts of the country, whose only mission is to see and be seen. To-night the town to-morrow will be a grand gala day if the weather proves propitious, and an immense turn-out may be expected.

In our next issue we will be able to give the programme, including the route of the procession.

Union Republican Rally in Birmingham—A Display of Rowdyism.

An immense meeting of the Union Republicans of Birmingham was held in the Diamond Square, in that borough, on Saturday evening—a full acre of people being assembled to listen to the discussion of the great issues involved in the present important canvass.

A Brass Band and the Birmingham Glee Club enlivened the proceedings with excellent music, vocal and instrumental.

The meeting was called to order by John S. Lambie, Esq., on whose motion W. C. Anghinbaugh was called to preside.

This gentleman, on taking the chair, alluded to the political situation briefly, but in a terse, logical and argumentative manner. He commended the speakers the attention of the audience; deprecated all interruptions of political gatherings, and pledged his opponents a peaceful and orderly meeting—so far as his party were concerned—the night time they meet in Birmingham. The speaker, in conclusion, introduced J. H. Miller, Esq., who proceeded to address the meeting at considerable length.

In the course of his remarks he alluded to the proposed amendments to the Constitution and denied that the Union party had ever worked no hardships on any loyal man, that they were impartial, and were only objectionable to secessionists. The gentleman the speaker also dealt some severe blows to "my policy" which were received with tremendous cheering. Mr. Miller concluded by exhorting his auditors to stand by the Union as tried in a great party that had saved the country in war and through whose agency it could alone be preserved in peace.

C. W. Robb, Esq., in his usual felicitous style, addressed the assembled crowd. The speaker compared the present Democratic party to a pyramid, that if the little balloon occupying it were built up into a pyramid—and Hiester Clymer could climb to the top of it, he would be nearer heaven and further from the reverse than he had ever been before or ever would be again. The Presidential pilgrimage was next alluded to and very sweet at some length. Hearing a hiss in the crowd Mr. Robb turned to his audience where it came from. The great anaconda in its late passage through the country had been gobbling up the little snakes after the manner of the old woman who died over a spider, and one of the larger reptiles was among the crowd; but there were some copperheads so venomous that the great anaconda refused to gobble them up, and that is why they were permitted to live. Artful laughter and applause the gentleman concluded.

Major A. M. Brown was the last speaker. Before the gentleman had proceeded far in his speech a crowd of "roughs" on the outskirts of the meeting began to hiss and call loudly for "Hester Clymer." The noise and din becoming at length so great that it was impossible for the speaker to be heard, and he was, therefore, forced to retire.

The peaceable loyal men returned to their homes, leaving the square in possession of the rowdies, who kept up their orgies until a late hour of the night.

Let us have more from the opposition about the interruption of public meetings after this display, which shows that the fellows who ring-leaded it have reduced this peculiar sport down to a science.

Yesterday morning, at about half past nine o'clock, a considerable section of one side of the great wigwam in process of construction on the West Common, Allegheny, fell to the ground. Several engineers of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, who had come to look at the building, were sitting under the portion of the roof that fell, one of them, Mr. Alpro Lee, remarked that he did not believe that the building was strong enough for the purposes designed. Happening to look up almost at the moment he made the remark, he saw the roof beginning to give way. He shouted to his comrades and sprang towards the open side of the building. All escaped unharmed, with the exception of Mr. Lee and Mr. Logan, both of Allegheny, neither of whom knew that the roof was falling. Both had their backs turned to it. Both were severely injured, the former receiving a fracture of the left leg, and Mr. Logan receiving quite severe injuries about the head and face. Both have been removed to their homes in Manchester. A party of ladies and children were on the point of entering the building at the time of the accident, and escaped severe injuries, only a few seconds before it was starting at the time of the accident. No stronger commentary on the construction of the building could be given than the wholesale fall of a portion of it under such circumstances. The committee will have the whole structure thoroughly examined to-day, and every defect in its construction remedied.

The Johnstown Calamity.

The Johnstown Tribune gives the following list of contributions received from abroad for the benefit of the sufferers, by the late terrible calamity at that place:

President Andrew Johnson	$100
General John M. Geary	200
John Riley, Altoona	5
D. Naulty	5
Citizens of Mineral Point	41
Capt. J. H. Gingerly	5
Schoonacker & Lang of Pittsburgh	100
F. Sellers' & Co., Pittsburgh	50
W. S. Haven, Pittsburgh	25
Gillespie, Zeller & Co., of Philadelphia	100
Hahn, Fernald & Wetherhold	10
John M'Kenna, of Philadelphia	25
Union League of Philadelphia	500

The Tribune adds that the extensive inquiry leads us to believe that there will be not more than two or three additional deaths, if that many. Nearly all of the badly wounded are doing finely. Many, however, will be badly crippled for life, and nearly a hundred will be confined to their beds for weeks.

It will be gratifying to our readers to learn that Miss Lucretia H. Canan, who was at first reported to be fatally injured, is rapidly improving. Her injuries are not of a nature to disable or disfigure her.

Death from Hard Drinking.

WM. THOMAS, a resident of East Birmingham, died Saturday morning or Friday night, at a tavern on Meadow street, in the borough. The deceased had been leading a very intemperate life for a very long time. On Friday at dinner, he drank a quart of ale, almost at a draught, and in the evening he went to the tavern mentioned, and called for a pint of beer, which, by the time his wife was very sick and he wanted it for her. The pint of liquor was put in the bucket he brought, and he complained that it was not full. The good measure in attendance then turned in a tumblerful more, and Thomas started for the door. Before going out he turned and drank off the draft. It was worth while to take so small a amount of whisky home, and before he could be intercepted with, had drank the whole quantity. He then sat down in the bar room and began to sleep, remaining there all night. In the morning he was found dead. Coroner Clawson held an inquest during the forenoon, and a verdict in accordance with the above facts rendered. Thomas was fifty years of age or thereabouts, and leaves a wife and two sons.

Charge of Highway Robbery.—Alderman Hostetter received information on Saturday morning from James Mahoney, of Mahoning Valley, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, that Joseph Carroll, with which highway robbery, Mahoney, it appears, came to this city a few days since, and getting in company with Carroll, they were induced by the latter to go to a house in Sandusky street, where Mahoney was robbed him down and "went through him," realizing from it thirty dollars in money, after which he decamped. The accused was arrested in default of bail for a hearing.

Thief Captured.

On the eighteenth of this month, Philip Golden, of Hickory Hollow, near Oil City, made information before the Mayor, charging Wm. Ashton with having stolen from him a silver lever watch worth twenty-five dollars, twenty-five dollars in money, and a breast pin tipped with gold, worth two dollars. He alleged that a day or two before, he and Ashton were drunk together in the place mentioned, and lay down to sleep. Before going to sleep Ashton informed Golden that he would surely rob him. Sure enough, when he woke up in the morning Ashton was gone, and with him the articles mentioned. It was supposed that he came to this city, and hither Golden came and made information as aforesaid. Search was made but he was not found in the city. He was also searched for in New Castle, where he resided, but was not found there either. On Saturday afternoon, officer Scott of the Mayor's police, discovered the alleged thief on St. Clair street, in front of the Sirwell House. The officer arrested the fellow and lodged him in the tombs. He will have a hearing to-day.

Rafting Under Difficulties.

On Saturday afternoon, owing to the high and turbulent state of the water in the Allegheny river, a raft of timber which had been hitched above the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad bridge, at one of the piers, was cut loose, for fear that it would damage the piles by being driven against them. The raft floated rapidly down the river and struck the piers of the Mand street bridge, where it immediately went to pieces. Several men who were on the raft were deposited with considerable unceremony in the stream. All succeeded in saving themselves without difficulty except one. This man, whose name we could not learn, was a bold and excellent swimmer, but was overpowered and exhausted by the violence and roughness of the current before he could reach the shore. Two boys in a skiff came out to him from the Pittsburgh side of the river, and rescued him just as he was on the point of sinking. He was so exhausted that he had to be pulled into the skiff by the main strength of the boys.

Terrible Fall.

A young lad named John Jack, aged between fourteen and fifteen, met with an accident on Saturday afternoon, which may result fatally. He was employed in heating rivets on the new iron suspension bridge, now being constructed across the Allegheny river, for the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company. In walking along one of the girders at an elevation of thirty feet from the water, he slipped and fell into the river, striking in his descent one of the planks and injuring his side to such an extent as to make his efforts in the water to save himself very feeble. A young man named Louis Roul, with wonderful presence of mind threw a board into the water for the young lad's grasp and clung to until rescued. Many parties in a skiff, who, seeing his perilous position, came to his aid and rescued him. A stretcher was prepared for the unfortunate lad, and carried to his home in the Eighth ward, where he still lies in a precarious condition.

A Discovered Heir.

A worthy young friend of ours connected with the Pittsburgh press, has just received letters from eminent counsel in New York, asking him for the proofs of his heirship to the famous Knickerbocker estate, which comprises the greater part of Wall street in that city. This property is in want of an heir, and our friend proves to be a direct descendant of the original owner of the entire tract, and is justly entitled to a large share in one hundred millions of dollars worth of the most valuable real estate in the metropolis. The discovery of his right to the property by members of the legal fraternity of New York, who are engaged in the investigation of claims coupled with the Knickerbocker estate, that this property belongs to them, seems to fasten beyond a doubt his right to the vast estate. If he gets his claim he proposes to remain in this city and pencil for a more congenial life than that of writing for the press. We shall borrow from him.

Grand Rally in the Elizabeths.

We have rarely seen a more spirited meeting than that of the Elizabeths—borough and township—in the Town Hall, in the borough, on Thursday evening last. It reminded one of the good old Whig times, when those strongholds of that party used to strip for the fight. Mr. Eckley, of the borough, presided. Capt. Longwell, of the township Elizabeth, acting as Secretary. A telling speech, well received, was made by a Baptist minister of the place, Rev. Mr. Hall, who was followed by Hons. J. K. Moorhead, and John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., of this city, who, until an unusually late hour, engaged the attention of the large audience with telling arguments and determination to do better than ever before seems abroad in the community, and we were assured the result would fully justify the expectation. We shall certainly be greatly disappointed if it does not.

Meetings To-night.

The Boys in Blue of the Sixth Ward will hold a meeting to-night in the Public School House on Penn street.

The Union Republican meeting will be held tonight at Sandy Creek, Penn township. Gen. Moorhead and other distinguished orators will address their fellow citizens upon the important issues of the day.

The Boys in Blue of the Fifth ward will assemble to-morrow evening at seven o'clock, to participate in the general procession. All the Army men of the ward are invited to fall into ranks.

The Boys in Blue of the Seventh ward will meet this evening at the same hour, at the school house.

The Geary Club of the First ward will meet at the school house, same evening at the same hour.

Railroad Accident.

At about five o'clock on Saturday evening, an accident occurred on the Homewood station, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, to the Erie Express coming to this city. Some new rails had been recently laid down there, and not being fully anchored, they spread and the forward truck of the rear car was thrown from the track. The car jolted over the ties for some distance, and was pretty badly smashed. Some twenty passengers were in the car, and all of them more or less bruised and cut. One lady, Mrs. Dieh, living near East Liberty, had her face pretty severely cut, and received several bruises. Mr. Henry P. Kane, of this city, also received injuries of a painful character. A gentleman named McCarthy, from Sharon, had one of his ribs broken and his ankle injured. None were seriously hurt, and the train was not long delayed.

Fatal Accident.

On Saturday evening last as Mr. John McNamara was returning home to his residence in Temperanceville, he fell through an unprotected part of the wooden bridge which passes over Saw Mill Run, near that borough, and sustained such injury as to cause his death almost instantly. Yesterday Coroner Clawson held an inquest upon the body of the deceased, and the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. They also recommended that the authorities have the bridge repaired immediately. It is said that this is the third death resulting from the same cause on the same bridge. The deceased was employed as a toll-gate keeper on the Steubenville Pike, and was a very worthy gentleman. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his untimely end.

Severely Hurt.—On Saturday morning, as Charles Foreman, engineer of Leverance's Steam saw mill, on Fifth avenue, was in the act of throwing a belt from a pulley, his clothing was caught and he was whirled around the shafting with frightful rapidity. His leg was terribly broken and lacerated, and he was otherwise injured. He was conveyed to his residence, near the Steubenville Railroad bridge, where his injuries were promptly attended to by Dr. Hamilton. He is very severely injured, but probably not fatally.

A Horse Whipping.—On Saturday afternoon as a man by the name of Dr. DeGrath was selling some kind of patent medicine from a carriage at the Fair grounds, a quarrel sprung up between him and some gentleman whose name could not be learned, and hard words passed, which ended by the gentleman striking him with a horsewhip. The Doctor then drew a pistol, but the gentleman's friends took him away. The Doctor was then requested to leave the grounds, which he did without any further difficulty.

Reorganized.—The Edwin Adams Dramatic Association has been reorganized and now promises to be the only first class organization in the theatrical line in the two cities. The following officers have been elected to serve the ensuing term: President—J. A. Davis; Vice President—W. H. Hamilton; Secretary—W. T. Gist; Treasurer—J. R. Weaver; Stage Manager—A. M. Ray. Ladies and gentlemen desiring to connect themselves with the Association will address Mr. W. T. Gist, Allegheny city.

A Substantial Welcome for our Soldiers.—Major Morehead, Chairman of the Committee to take the names of those who are willing to furnish board and lodgings to any of the soldiers during the continuance of the great Convention, will be in attendance at the City Hall all day to-day, in order to make a record of those who are willing to furnish accommodations to delegates. A dispatch was received by Major Moorhead on Saturday evening, stating that a delegation of two hundred and fifty would arrive from Cleveland.

Street Row.—Mary Morrison was arrested in the borough by young Frank named John Larimer, on Saturday morning, at the corner of High and Wylie streets. She attempted to defend herself by nature's weapons, and in doing so broke his nose, whereupon, gave it ing close to her head, when she knocked him up and resorted to the law, appearing before Alderman Lynch forthwith, where she preferred a charge of assault and battery against John. He was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

Assault and Battery.—Andrew Timothy was before Alderman Lynch on Saturday charged with assault and battery on oath of William Jones. The defendant alleges that Andrew, who is but a small boy, struck him in the face with his school slate while he was sitting down. A warrant (the proceedings in the hands of officer Conners for the arrest of the youthful transgressor.

Accidental Fire.—The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was occasioned by the burning of a chimney on Factory street. No damage was done.

DIED;

QUINN—Died, in Johnstown, Pa., on the 17th inst., from the effects of injuries received by the fall of a platform on the 15th, MARY JANE QUINN daughter of Thomas and Rose Quinn, aged 26 years, 5 months and 19 days.

There is a beauty even in death. At the moment of dissolution, when the immortal spirit is kissing the earthly house in which it had been domiciled for years, and says, "I will rejoin you on the day of resurrection, spotless and clear," rejoicing really should take the place of tears.

This young lady was the idol of the society in which she moved. Her genial smile, her generous heart, her nobleness—yes, her true and perfect womanhood—made her endeared to all who enjoyed her acquaintance.

The memory of Miss Quinn will long live in the "heart of hearts" of her friends. Life is but a span. They hope to meet her in a glorious immortality. M.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PLAN.

NUMBER FOUR.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Pensions, bounties, debts; these are the three things this section is designed to secure. Let us consider why they should be secured, and what need there is for special guarantees.

Before the war broke out the American people were almost universally regarded as supremely addicted to money-getting. The passion of acquisition was supposed to have mastered in them every other. Hence they were believed incapable of making vast sacrifices in obedience to a sentiment or in defence of a principle. This was soon shown to be a delusion. No sooner had the war began than hundreds of thousands of men hastened to unclasp from about their necks the arms of mothers, sisters, lovers and wives, and laid themselves on the altar of sacrifice that the country might live. Multitudes perished, leaving to the nation the duty of extending a suitable measure of protection to those who were dependent on them for support. Many young men went into the service, and came out maimed or broken in health. To these a permanent provision is due. Others went in, and came out with all their members untouched and in robust health. But disease, misfortune, or old age may fall upon them, and find them without resources. It will only be following the rule established in former cases that suitable aid shall in due time be extended to such.

In the prosecution of the war an immense debt was created, and the public faith pledged for its redemption. The national obligations are not only held by capitalists and corporations, but by all manner of persons of limited possessions. Justice requires that these obligations, no matter by whomsoever held, shall be accounted sacred. Nor is justice alone concerned in demanding their payment. Considerations of bare expediency urge to the same course. The nation may be involved in trouble in the future, and be constrained again to resort to its credit for means in time of deadly peril.

But this section does not apply solely to obligations incurred in the late troubles. It stretches on into coming time, and covers all similar emergencies. It furnishes in advance security for all bounties, pensions and debts which the Government may be compelled to resort to whenever other wars, foreign or domestic, shall befall the nation. Such a stipulation, existing in the Constitution, may be of incalculable value, and no fitter occasion than the present can be found for introducing it into the organic law.

But this does not represent the whole field covered by the section. It further provides, that neither the United States, nor any State, shall assume to pay any obligation contracted to aid the late insurrection, or any other, and that no compensation shall be made for the loss or liberation of any slaves during the war or by reason thereof. These debts and demands, as they now stand, are of formidable magnitude, and about the last thing any nation ought to do is to pay the expense of attempts to destroy its existence. To do this would be very like the folly of a man who should volunteer to discharge debts created by a scheme for his assassination.

It is idle to urge that no probability exists of the making of such an attempt. The rebel debt, and the claims for lost or emancipated slaves, put together, amount to a prodigious aggregate. It is easy to foresee that a condition of parties may arise in which an attempt might not only be made to have Congress assume and pay these claims, but might be successful. The late National Conservative Convention at Philadelphia was reported by Atlantic Telegraph to have produced a slight appreciation of rebel bonds in Europe. It is important that all hope, even the faintest, of federal assumption of these debts or claims, should be quenched. Until this shall be done, and in the way now proposed, intrigues and combinations to secure Congressional majorities favorable to assumption, will be incessant. Now is precisely the time to close up this whole matter.

We have thus given all the points embraced in the Congressional Plan of Reconstruction. There is nothing in it harsh or unreasonable. On the contrary, it is marvellously lenient and magnanimous. No other nation ever closed up a great revolt on terms at once so mild and beneficent. Indeed, we are free to confess that on some heads we should not be displeased with a greater degree of rigor. But, where many individuals necessarily co operate to a single end, concessions must be made on all sides; and we are prepared to do our share for the sake of humanity.

This Amendment has been variously caricatured. Representations have been made respecting it, which have no foundation in fact, and which it is hard to conceive any person of ordinary discernment believed to be warranted. Let no Republican be misled by these unjust representations; but let each one read and consider the Amendment for himself.

Let it further be borne in mind, that before the adoption of the Amendment looks up another, of still greater importance, and this relates to the right of the people, through their chosen representatives, to make the laws. The Constitution has not confided supreme authority to one man. If it had, the sooner the Constitution should be abrogated, the better for the people of this country, and for all mankind. There is no longer any ground for the pretense that Congress does not reflect the will of the loyal people. Most of the old members have been re-nominated and will be re-elected. Where changes have been made—where old members have been dropped, and new candidates taken up—in almost every instance men of moderate views have been exchanged for men more radical, and this in obedience to the popular impulse. The people are not vindictive or bloodthirsty, but they demand guarantees that all their toils, sacrifices and burdens shall not be in vain. Vermont and Maine are not destined to stand as exceptions. There are indications all over the North that the people are aroused and resolved, and will not be baffled. Those who are inclined to oppose may as well stand from under.

THE GREENSBURG DISCUSSION.

Some days ago a handbill was issued from Greensburg, announcing a public meeting to be held in that borough on Friday last, at which the Hon. EDGAR COWAN and the Rev. Mr. MOORE, the latter being Democratic candidate for the Legislature, would speak. At the bottom of this handbill was appended a challenge to THADDEUS STEVENS, CHARLES SUMNER, and A. K. M'CLURE, or any other distinguished Radicals, to appear and debate the question of Reconstruction with these Philistines. Of course care was taken not to serve copies of this challenge on the persons named. The evident intention was to take judgment by default, and then make a parade of backing the Republicans down. Copies of the handbill having reached this city, THOMAS WILLIAMS, SAMUEL A. PURVIANCE, THOMAS M. MARSHALL and GALUSHA A. GROW concluded they would go up to Greensburg and respond; and they did.

Mr. COWAN was waited on, and informed of the acceptance of his challenge. He denied having given a challenge, though it is hardly conceivable such a handbill would have been issued without his knowledge and consent. However, it was arranged that the debate should be held; and shortly after two o'clock the Court House was crowded with men, apparently about equally divided between the two political parties.

Mr. S. A. PURVIANCE was made Moderator. Mr. COWAN opened, by agreement, in a speech of fifteen minutes duration. Mr. GROW, Mr. MOORE, and Mr. WILLIAMS followed, each occupying an hour. Mr. COWAN was allowed three-quarters of an hour to close, but did not use all his time; nor did he touch the main question. Whether he was not prepared for the encounter he or his friends had provoked, or was met by foemen whose thrusts he could not parry, or had given up the contest in the State as already decided against him, can not be be confirmed. But this is manifest, that while Mr. GROW and Mr. WILLIAMS spoke with unusual brilliancy and power, Mr. COWAN was altogether lacking in his ordinary spirit and adroitness. Indeed, he did not attempt to argue the great question at all, but contented himself with idle declamations about magnanimity to fallen foes, and all that sort of thing.

The debate closed at half past five o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening the Republicans proposed to hold a meeting of their own in the Court House; but the use of the building was refused them. However, they held a meeting at McQUADE'S Hotel, at which Messrs. MARSHALL, PURVIANCE and WILLIAMS spoke.

The probabilities are that no further challenges will issue from Greensburg this year, directed to Republican leaders.

NOMINATIONS COMPLETED.

In the 14th district of this State, the Republicans have re-nominated for Congress Mr. GEORGE F. MILLER. While not a man of brilliant parts, he has excellent sense, great industry and undoubted honesty. His re-nomination will be received with satisfaction by republicans every where.

The democrats of the same district have selected for their candidate Mr. BOWERS, of Snyder county.

In the first district Mr. JOSEPH R. LUNDELL, having declined the republican nomination tendered him, Mr. E. C. KNIGHT was, on Saturday, put in his place. Mr. KNIGHT is a merchant of high character, and was the Presidential Elector for the first district in 1860.

This completes the Congressional tickets on both sides.

—Governor Fairchild, of Wisconsin, was one of the bravest heroes of the war against the rebellion. A gentleman who was introduced to him the other day, observed, as he took his left hand, that he had lost his right arm. "Yes," said the Governor in reply, "I attended a convention at Gettysburg in 1863, and met a Southern delegate who was very anxious to walk arm-in-arm with me, and when we separated I found that the embrace had been rather costly." The remark was quietly made, but suggested a world of valuable reflections.

BE ON THE ALERT! DANGER

IS AT HAND!—This has been a sickly season. The medical fraternity prophesy evil in the future. Stop! think prestilence is on the wing for America. Suppose this to be true, what is the best defense against it? REDOUBLED NERVOUS VIGOR. This is the only protection against PANIC, as well as against the PRINCIPLE OF INFECTION. Why do not those weary with nervousness and debility avail themselves of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, an article which for its wonderful power to tone the nerves, and thereby impart vigor to the whole system, is unrivalled? If you are troubled with dyspepsia, if you are sleepless, if your nerves are unstrung, if you are subject to dizziness in the head, if your liver is inactive, if your bowels are costive, if your kidneys are disordered, if your blood is impure, if your whole system, from the brain of the brain, wherever it happens to be affected, is in a state of nervous prostration, you are the very person for whom this great vegetable invigorant and tonic is designed. It is the only reliable remedy ever offered to the public which acts directly upon the nerves. Direct to the seat of disease, it soothes, strengthens, and restores to healthful action the deranged and debilitated nerves. Hence its power over dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, kidney disorders, rheumatism, fever and ague, and all diseases of a nervous character. Prepared and sold by DR. J. HOSTETTER & CO., Pittsburgh, Pa., and for sale by druggists and dealers generally throughout the United States and Canadas. sep24:1dtw

THE NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—Now ready, and for sale by all newsdealers and booksellers, the celebrated romance (beautifully illustrated)
THE DEAD LETTER!
No work from the pen of any American writer has attracted more attention, or excited more favorable comment. Read what the press says:
It is one of those stories that literally absorbs all the powers and passions of the reader. Differently from the Anatomy of Melancholy, which Dr. Johnson said took him out of every hour before he wanted to rise, it is will not allow the reader to sleep till he has finished it.—Southern (Pa.) Recorder.
Who is its author?—Chicago Press.
It is unmistakably William Gilmore Simms, and its plot very ingenious and pleasing.—Spirit (N. Y.) Republican.
Written in well chosen language, yet with that simplicity which is ever used by a good writer.—World (Phila.)
We have no hesitation in pronouncing it a powerful story.—Norfolk (Va.) Post.
If Poe could write, we believe, to some of the most powerful and beautifully written romances yet produced in America.—Westchester (Pa.) Record.
Don't be humbugged by a cheap and worthless novel, as it is.—Lebanon (Pa.) Free Press.
An interesting story, and whoever begins it will not be willing to give it up until the conclusion is reached.—Youngstown (O.) Register.
And yet the subject is one of great public interest at the present moment in the southern portion of the country. It is THE GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE, and as such will be read by thousands.—Pittsburgh Gazette.
In paper covers, double volume size. Price fifty cents.

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.
FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.
The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.
The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are equally prompt, and the remedy courses the blood and tissues. Boils, scrofulous sores and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.
It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of its medicinal effect and the pleasant, aromatic taste of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or dislike to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given perseveringly, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.
The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive of these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.
No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as to Alterative, or Blood Purifier,
has ever before been placed within the reach of families. Indeed, it is an entire NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, and has no exact resemblance to anything hitherto employed.
The opinion of medical men concerning it, the directions for its use, dose, character, therapeutic value, manner of operation, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Head Quarters Department of Tennessee—Secretary of Colorado—Imprevement of Secretary Seward's Condition—Payment of Increased Bounties to Proceed —Appointments.

WASHINGTON, September 22, 1865.

By the War Department, General Orders number seventy-seven, the headquarters of the Department of Tennessee is transferred from Nashville to Louisville, Kentucky.

James R. Hood, of Tennessee, well known in the political circles of that State, was to-day commissioned as Secretary of the Territory of Colorado.

As an evidence of the continued improvement of Secretary Seward's health, it may be stated that he this afternoon paid a visit to the President.

There is no truth in the statement that the payment of bounties provided for by the last Congress has been stopped. On the contrary the Secretary of War, in a letter, stated that he instructed the Paymaster General to commence payment at once. The Treasury Department is prepared to furnish, on demand, any money that may be required for the purpose.

The President has appointed Andrew T. McReynolds United States district Attorney for the Western District of Michigan, and Jacob F. Cox, United States Marshall for the District of Indiana.

The following telegraphic correspondence has been received at the office of the Military Telegraph: Telegram received at the War Department, Washington, D. C., September 21st, 1865, from Columbus, Ohio, September 21st, 1865.

To Andrew Johnson, President:—The following is published in Ohio, and damages me in my Department at Wales, but want authority for a positive denial:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, State of Ohio, Secretary Agency, Washington, Sept. 19th, 1865. George Lindley, Auditor, Military Commission, Gilead, Wood County, Ohio, Dear Sir:—Yours of the 5th inst. is received. You ask are the Paymaster General and Second Auditor still pressing bills under the fourty acts passed by the last Congress. The former states that he is waiting instructions by those who are in authority. The latter has been instructed by the Secretary of the Treasury not to pay any bounty passed by the last Congress. It is the opinion that the President does not intend that a dollar of the additional bounty shall be paid to a Union soldier or his family, if he can help it.

JAS. C. WETMORE.

(Signed by J. H. Grigg and John G. Thompson, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, September 23d, 1865.

To John H. Gregg and John G. Thompson, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee at Columbus, Ohio:—Reports that the President or Secretary, have delayed the payment of the bounties, are unfounded. Payments will be made under the rules which have just been completed by the War Department. The Paymaster General has been instructed to commence payments at once. There will be no delay on the part of this Department.

(Signed) D. MCCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

From South America and Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Recent news from South America brings important intelligence that the difficulty between the United States Government and Brazil and the Argentine republics will be amicably settled. It will be remembered that our Minister to Paraguay, Mr. Washburne, was returning to his post when he was stopped by the fleet of forces who were blockading the Paraguay river. The United States Government on learning the facts, immediately and emphatically insisted that he should be allowed to proceed, and that to prevent him would be regarded as a violation both of international custom and courtesy, and of international law. In view of these representations it is now stated on good authority that the allied governments have withdrawn their opposition and that Mr. Washburne has accordingly passed through the blockade and proceeded up the river to his post.

Mr. Romero has received to-day, dispatches from Vera Cruz, with dates of the 12th inst., confirming the following information:

The French were fortifying the City of Vera Cruz on the land side apparently, as the Mexican soldiers came so near, that the city is thought to be in danger of capture.

The steamer Panama, from St. Nazaire, reached Vera Cruz on the 10th. She took on board one hundred and thirty French soldiers for Mexico.

News from the interior is most gloomy for Maximilian and the French; their former partisans are deserting them by the hundreds.

The official paper of Guadalajara, of the 9th, publishes some correspondence between the Mexican Government and the French General Donay, in regard to the exchange of prisoners. It appears that the Mexican government has been willing to come to some agreement about a general system of exchange; while the French General declines to accept the proposition made in that line, and was the one who first applied for a partial exchange.

Precautions Against Fenianism.

TORONTO, Sept. 22—This evening's Daily Telegraph says a Government circular has been issued to county attorneys and police magistrates, instructing the greatest care in all cases in the immediate neighborhood of frontier ports, where they consider dangerous to the public peace, and that all persons known or suspected of having connection with Fenians be vigorously prosecuted. Three Fenians were committed to day to jail, and a list of several hundred names, locked up soon will be sent to each county, and to the chief officials of the police, and vigorous measures are being made. The police and Government detectives are now in the city. From the time the Fenians left Buffalo, the movements of everything in the city will be closely watched, suspicious characters searched and arrested, and if their business is not satisfactorily explained, committed to jail, under the new act just passed at last session. A special session of Magistrates is now in session at the Mayor's office, City Hall. They purpose organizing a night patrol of one hundred and fifty men in each ward, well-known householders, under the statutes, there to be armed at least two night in the week and to use arms, and a certain number to parade the streets every night. The Chief of Police has petitioned the Police Commissioners for an increase of the police force.

Failure of the Producer's Bank, Chicago—Adjournment of the South Carolina Legislature—Laws for the Freedmen.

NEW YORK, September, 22.—A Chicago paper states that the failure of the Producer's Bank is serious. Its liabilities are 185,000 dollars, and assets only 130,25 dollars, including four notes of 50,000 dollars, each signed by N. Dodd, Jr., C. K. Boothille, Lovell H. Rousseau and E. Talcott. The expose of this ruction concern, has created a decided sensation.

A Charleston special states that the Legislature adjourned on Friday night. Among the measures adopted was an act securing to the Freedmen, the right to make and enforce contracts, sue and be sued, to give evidence, to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold real estate and personal property, and enjoy all the legal remedies the same as the whites, and be punished also with the whites, for the same offences. The next session of the State Courts is postponed till spring. Measures were also adopted to supply coal to the destitute, establish penitentiary systems, and to authorize the use of gold for bridging the burnt district of Charleston.

Alleged Disorder Among Discharged Soldiers.

NEW ORLEANS, September 22.—The officers of the eighty-second colored infantry assert that the regiment was very peaceably mustered out yesterday; however, quite a riotous spirit is manifested among the negroes in the city, which is owing exactly to the disbandment of the eighty-first and eighty-second regiments of colored infantry, who have just been paid off, and are giving themselves up to drink and carousal. The city is well guarded and no outbreak is expected. Thirty-five cabmen were arrested for violating the city ordinance by making a regular stand in the streets instead of moving about as the business necessity to secure the patronage of the transient people.

It is said on the authority of Colonel Eddy, who has been in the confidence of Governor Wells, that he has determined to support the reconstruction policy of President Johnson.

Southern Loyalists in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23.—The delegation of Southern loyalists arrived here yesterday afternoon. A formal reception took place last night in Court-street Market square where the delegation was welcomed by Mr. A. F. Perry, chairman of the meeting. Speeches were made by Colonel Brasscomb, of Georgia, General Thomas, of Governor Brownlow's staff, of Tennessee, and Mr. Griffith, of Georgia.

A dispatch to the Enquirer says that Dr. Pierce, mail agent on the steamer General Sedgwick, arrived here yesterday and was delivered to the United States Court on a charge of murder.

Change of Gates Holders Urged.

WASHINGTON, September 23.—A large number of the most prominent supporters of the President's policy in Maine and New Hampshire, including Hon. Charles A. Shaw, the lawyer of Bedford, Hon. Samuel Pennell, of Belfast; Hon. S. D. M. Sweat, of Portland; the Mayor of Manchester; Mayor Mains, of Gorham; Hon. D. Marcy, of Portsmouth, and others, have urged a further change of Government office holders in those States.

Congressional Nomination in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23.—The total deaths from cholera in this city last week were two hundred and five.

The Radicals of the Ninth District nominated Geo. W. Anderson for re-election to Congress. Representatives of the Second District nominated Judge May for Congress and Francis Train announces himself an Independent candidate for Congress in Nebraska.

Artillery Practice at Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, September 21—After insurmountable delays the gruesome experiments commenced this morning by the Board of Engineer officers, appointed to investigate the merits of the different heavy fortifications. The guns which were used were two tested specimens, and consisted of a fifteen inch smooth bore Rodman gun, and a twelve inch rifled piece of the same pattern.

Great Estate in New York in Litigation.

NEW YORK, September 21.—Another suit has just been commenced by the heirs of one of the old Knickerbocker families against the Trinity Church corporation, for the recovery of large tracts of real estate, now amongst the most valuable in the city. It is alleged to have been wrongfully held by verdicts. The property is valued at sixty millions of dollars.

Arch Deacon Bethune Made Coadjutor Bishop.

TORONTO, C. W., Sept. 22.—The election of Archdeacon Bethune of the diocese of Toronto, after a number of days' balloting, finally resulted in the election of Archdeacon Bethune of Cobourg.

Congressional Nomination at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, September 22.—George F. Miller was nominated for Congress, by the Republicans of this District to-day.

The Great Trot at Chicago—Butler's Driver Killed—Foul Play Suspected.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—In the trot yesterday between Cooley and Butler, the first two heats were won by the former, and the next two by Butler. The excitement before the fifth heat was intense, and considerable ill feeling displayed by the drivers of both horses. A long delayed start for the last heat until after dark, from which the Butler came in without a driver, who was found near the half mile post with his skull broken. There are suspicions of foul play. The driver of Cooley is under arrest. The driver of Butler—named McKeever—was still alive this morning, but his recovery is considered doubtful.

LATER.

McKeever, the driver of Butler, died this afternoon, from injuries received at Driving Park last evening. There is no doubt but that his death was the result of foul play. A board, the end of which was covered with blood, was found near where the body lay. It is surmised that it was knocked from his seat with the weapon by some person interested in the success of Cooley. The affair is the subject of conversation at all the corners to-day. Other arrests besides the driver of Cooley have been made.

PRIVATE DISEASES.

OFFICE NO. 57 FIFTH STREET, near Rand.

For the cure of all diseases of a private nature, of from 15 to 20 years' standing, by an entirely new and original treatment, which has been discovered after many years of study and practice, and which is offered to the afflicted with the full confidence that a cure will be effected in every case. Persons who have been under the treatment of other physicians, and have been pronounced incurable, should not despair, but call on me, as I am confident I can restore them to perfect health. Persons who have been under the treatment of mercury, and have suffered from its effects, should call on me, as I am confident I can cure them. Persons who have been under the treatment of quacks, and have been deceived by them, should call on me, as I am confident I can cure them. Persons who have been under the treatment of physicians
